

THE WORSHIPFUL SOCIETY OF APOTHECARIES OF LONDON

SAVE THE DATE

THURSDAY THE 24TH OF MAY 2018
AT THE WORSHIPFUL SOCIETY OF APOTHECARIES

“QUARANTINE”

Thursday, 24th May 2018

The Faculty of the History and Philosophy of Medicine and Pharmacy and the Faculty of Conflict and Catastrophe Medicine are hosting a joint symposium to explore the effects on human life and society at times of Quarantine.

Speakers Include:

Dr Aroop Mozumder, Professor Carol Rawcliffe, Dr Hilary Morris, Dr John Moore-Gillon,
& Dr Tim Healing
(full programme to be confirmed)

Registration 0930
Reception 1800

At Apothecaries' Hall, Black Friars Lane, London EC4V 6EJ

Faculty Members' fee £30
Non-Members fee £50
Students fee £30

Booking and Payment Options:

Please confirm your attendance & guests with Maria Ferran, Faculty Manager
Email: facultyhp@apothecaries.org or Telephone: 020 7236 1189

Electronic transfer: Coutts & Co.

Account Name: The Society of Apothecaries
Sort Code: 18-00-02 Account number: 05959659
Reference: QTN/ (your surname)

Cheques should be made payable to “The Society of Apothecaries”

No refunds for cancellations within 7 days prior to the lecture

Sparkling wine reception sponsored by Jon Baines Tours

