The first incorporation was by Charter from James I, dated April 9 1606 under which the Apothecaries were united with the Grocers. A new Charter was received on December 6 1617 which formed a separate company under a Master and Wardens, as a Society of the Art and Mystery of the Apothecaries of the City of London.

400 years to the day, the Society will celebrate with a magnificent Banquet at Guildhall. After a Reception in the Old Library, there will be a 4-course white tie dinner in the magnificent surroundings of the Great Hall, in the presence of key figures in the life of the Society: Royal Freemen, the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs, Presidents of the Medical Royal Colleges, the Grocers, the Barbers, and the Patrons of the 400 Appeal, who will all be invited.

Each member may be accompanied by 1 guest at the early-bird £100pp price, if you would like additional tickets please let us know.
