Masters Day Service

Eligibility: All Members of the Society Guardant or Couchant, family and guests welcome.

Date: Sunday 25th September 2016.
Timing: 1215, please be seated in the Church by Noon.
Venue: St. Andrews-by-the-Wardrobe, EC4.
Dress: Day Dress (Lounge Suits).
Price: £73 if attending the pre-prandial drinks and subscription luncheon after the service.

No pour memoires will be sent.

The Master’s Day Service has taken place in one form or another since the 18th century. As well as a celebration for the election of the New Master the service includes prayers of remembrance for those members of the Society who have died during the previous year. The Master and Court will process from the Hall to arrive at St Andrew’s at midday. The service will be conducted by the Master’s Chaplain. After the service drinks and luncheon will be served at the Hall. There is a collection for the Society’s 400th Anniversary Charitable Appeal.

The following dinners all priced £93 per person, with the following eligibility:

YEOMEN of less than 5 years’ seniority, Guardant YEOMEN, Guardant LIVERYMEN. (Couchant members may apply to the waiting list)

In accordance with Standing Order 11, every Guardant Liveryman may attend ONE Livery Dinner free of charge annually. Liverymen attending their first Dinner of the year have priority over other Liverymen.

Yeomanry & Livery Dinner

Date: Monday 31st October 2016
Timing: 6.45p.m. for 7.30 p.m.
Application closing date: 17th October 2016
Pour memoire sent: 6-8 weeks before event
Dress: Evening dress is encouraged, although a dinner jacket is acceptable. Those in the Services should wear Mess Dress/Undress as appropriate.

This dinner is primarily for Yeomen of the Society and their guests but Liverymen are welcome. Traditionally it has been the Society’s main dinner for our connections with HM Armed Forces so Apothecaries are also encouraged to bring Servicemen as their personal guests.

The Society is unique in combining the responsibilities of a City of London Livery Company with a UK medical academic institution. The Galen evening marks its annual celebration of medical science and education. The Galen Medal in Therapeutics is presented annually by the Society of Apothecaries and is its most prestigious award. The Farr Medal, for significant contribution to the management of elderly people, is also presented on this occasion.

The Medal presentation ceremony will begin at 7.00 p.m. precisely, followed by a reception and a formal dinner to which Presidents of Colleges and other distinguished medical and political guests are invited.

Evening dress and laundry

The Court has always encouraged full evening dress (white tie, tails) for Livery Dinners. Moss Bros have continued to offer the Society a 20% discount on all items of hire wears. This offer is valid in the following outlets: Kings Street, Regents Street, Oxford Street, East Cheap, and Kingston. To qualify for this discount on entering any of these outlets, members are requested to identify verbally to the Manager their membership of the Society.

Hiring/buying Evening dress: Messrs Lipman & Son of 22 Charing Cross Road (020 7240 2310) or G. Jolliffe & Co, of 48-54 Chapel Street, Marlow, Bucks, SL7 1DD (01628 475757 info@jolliffes.co.uk - www.jolliffes.co.uk)

For those who have difficulty with laundry, the Society uses Classic Clean Ltd in St Bride’s Passage and they have proved to be very reliable for stiff shirts, collars and waistcoats. They have 13 branches around London and their prices are very competitive. See www.classiclean.co.uk.
