

*The Worshipful Society of Apothecaries of London,
Black Friars Lane, London, EC4V 6EJ*

FACULTY OF CONFLICT AND CATASTROPHE MEDICINE

SPRING LECTURE

“When the Captains and the Kings Depart” – Rudyard Kipling
Reflections on how wars and disasters affect individuals and societies.

Will be given by,

Mr. John Beavis, FRCS, DMCC
Lately Hunterian Professor of Surgery,
Royal College of Surgeons of England and
Senior Lecturer Leonard Cheshire Centre of Conflict Recovery at UCL

At Apothecaries’ Hall, Black Friars Lane, London EC4V 6EJ

On Tuesday 5th May 2009
At 6.30pm

Admission £15 per person

No tickets will be issued

Tea will be provided at 5.30 p.m. and drinks will be served after the lecture at 7.30 p.m.

FACULTY OF CONFLICT AND CATASTROPHE MEDICINE
SPRING LECTURE 2009

Please return to the Beci Ryan, Society of Apothecaries by 6th April 2009.
Cheques should be made payable to “Society of Apothecaries”

I will attend the lecture on Tuesday 5th May 2009 and will bring guests.

I attach a cheque for £..... (£15 per person)

NAME IN BLOCK CAPITALS

Email

Contact number Signature