

The Society of Apothecaries of London

The Diploma in the History of Medicine (DHMSA)

List of successful dissertations 2005 - 2017

V2 Aug
2016

Year	Name	Title of Dissertation
2005	Michael BERRY	Rwanda: Medical complicity revisited
2005	Rebecca CASEY	The Trial of the Criminal Lunatic in the Early Nineteenth Century: At London's Old Bailey
2005	Sarah CROFT	East London Hospital for Children and Dispensary for Women: the foundation of a children's hospital
2005	Jacqueline FAITH	Laryngology in the Late 19 th Century: A selective review of functional laryngeal disorders and their medical remedies
2005	¶ Elizabeth HARDY	Conkers to Conquer Hitler: A history of the county herb committees of World War II
2005	Vera LEES	Medicine in Exile: The Czechoslovaks in Great Britain during the Second World War
2005	Orla QUIGLEY	The Atlantic Crossing: A medical Overview of famine driven emigration from Ireland to North America 1845-1850
2005	David SAMES	Moses ben Maimon 1135-1204: Rabbi, Philosopher and Physician, A critical assessment
2005	Rabya SAYED	Establishing Western Medicine in India: The trials and tribulations of an officer in the Indian medical service (1900-1937)
2005	Pete STARLING	Mistaken Gallantry: Medical officer gallantry and deaths in the Great War
2005	Kathryn TOMPSETT	Resuscitation Techniques in Practice From 1884 to 1992: A period of great change
2005	John ZORAB	The Diagnosis of Death: A historical perspective

2006	Sally BELCHER	English Forceps Operators and Their Opponents 1734-1753: Revealers of the Chamberlen secret, the Devanterian Resistance and gradual acceptance
2006	Mark CHILDREN	The Impact and Treatment of Scurvy in the Eighteenth Century British Navy
2006	¶ Susan EDGINGTON	Guido Da Vigevando's Regimen Sanitatis and Attitudes to Old Age in the Middle Ages
2006	Michelle KEMP	The Changes in Psychiatric Hospitals in England Between 1930 and 1960
2006	Leslie KNOCK	An Attempt to Eradicate a Profession: Challenges to medical herbalism in the United Kingdom between 1858 and 1914
2006	David WRIGHT	The Value of Reviews: Douglas Guthrie and Writing a History of Medicine
2007	Peter BENNETT	Ethics Asleep: The development of medical research ethics particularly the period from the Nuremberg Code (1947) to the Helsinki Declaration (1964)
2007	Paul BINGHAM	History of the Medical Officers of Health of the Isle of Wight Rural Sanitary District 1872 to 1907
2007	Geoffrey CLEIN	Thomas Mott Caton (1779 – 1853): An ordinary nineteenth century apothecary
2007	Christopher DERRETT	Morbidity on View, Mortality in Prospect: Teaching with pathology specimens at the London Medical College 1785 – 2007
2007	Susannah FAIRWEATHER	St Luke's Woodside Hospital During the Second World War
2007	Michael DITZPATRICK	The Sick Sailor in Inter-War London: An analysis of the admission records for the Albert Dock Hospital 1920 – 1945
2007	Rebecca GROSSMAN	John Scott Burdon-Sanderson and the Discovery of the Antibacterial Properties of Penicillium in the Nineteenth Century
2007	Allan HUNT	Development of Forensic Pathology in Ontario, Canada: Pioneer Days to 2000
2007	Joanne OOI	How Loud is the Unquiet Mind? William Sargant and British psychiatry in the mid-20 th century
2007	Farkhanda REHMAN	Gee to Crosby: An evolution in the knowledge of Coeliac disease

2007	Maria RODRIGUEZ	Did Obstetric Anaesthesia and Analgesia Contribute to the Medicalisation of the Midwifery Profession?
2007	Susannah SILVAH-SHATTOCK	The Place of Medicine in Christian Mission
2007	¶ Rachel WALSH	Shellshock: The birth of psychiatry in Britain after the Great War 1914 – 1918
2008	Ronit DAS	The early English view of cholera
2008	Jackline ODOCH	The Beginnings of Speciality - Medical attitudes towards the study of diseases of children and establishment of children's hospitals in Great Britain 1840-1890 with special reference to Charles West
2008	Amish Praful PATEL	Crazy Crimes in the 19th Century: an insight into the lives of criminal lunatics at Bethlem Royal Hospital from 1816-1864
2008	Megan Fengmei PENG	Aunt Mai - Nightingale's "True Mother"
2008	Nina Nicole STAFFORD	Suicide in Nineteenth Century Doctors - Purely a product of stress an opportunity?
2008	Jane Elizabeth TOMLINSON	The art and artistry of plastic surgery: A history of facial reconstruction in WW1
2008	Gillian CORBLE	Chartham Lunatic Asylum – Life in an English county asylum for Pauper Lunatics in the late 19 th century
2008	¶ Ruth Victoria REED	Before Freud – Beliefs about the parental causation of ‘childhood insanity’ amongst the medical profession in 19 th century Britain
2008	Roger Lewis ROLLS	Restored to Strength and Vigour – The treatment of children at Bath Spa in the 17 th and 18 th century
2008	Vashisht SEKAR	Hunterian Ligation of Aneurysms – Conception to current practice
2008	Nallini THEVAKARRUNAI	Emancipating Men in General Nursing
2009	Oyedeji AYONRINDE	A History of ‘Brain Fag’ in the 19 th and 20 th Century
2009	Margaret Anne BARKER	Eugenics in the Early Twentieth Century – As captured in the archive of Frederick Parkes Weber MD FRCP
2009	Rusheng CHEW	The Challenges of a Colonial Medical Service Career 1895 - 1966
2009	Mark GARDINER	Smallpox Prophylaxis at the London Founding Hospital – The change form variolation to vaccination

2009	Ivan INIESTA LOPEZ	The Writings of John Hughlings Jackson LSA MD FRS FRCP (1835 – 1911) that led to ‘A Study of Convulsions’: 1861 - 1870
2009	Akin NIHAT	Vladimir Demikhov – Forgotten Pioneer of Transplantology
2009	Annemarie PAPANIKITAS	The British Eugenics Society – From a Political to a Scientific Identity
2009	Julie PAPWORTH	Scurvy in the Mercantile Marine in the 19 th Century – With particular reference to the Whaling Industry
2009	Sabina PATEL	Robert Bentley Todd – Not simply a forerunner of Hughlings Jackson in the realms of Epileptology
2009	John SEDGEWICK	How did the British Army Enlist Voluntary Medical Aid During the First World War – With specific reference to the St John Ambulance Brigade Hospital in Etaples, France
2009	Michael UTTERSON	Sigmund Rascher (1909 – 1945) – The Archetypal Nazi Doctor
2009	Elizabeth Ann WOOD	Nutritional Necessity or Political Football? – The History of School Milk from 1906 - 2001
2009	Hawa ABUBAKAR	Trust Me I am a Doctor - A half century of medicine on television
2010	Elizabeth CHARLES-EDWARDS	Mary Désiré Waller: lady of science (1886-1959)
2010	Richard COBB	A History of Facial Trauma Management During World War I and II: The Origins of Maxillofacial Surgery
2010	Mark George JENKINS	Intravenous fluid therapy, obstacles, resistance, and doctors doing harm
2010	Julia Charlotte Letitia WINGATE	Suited up to scrubbing in; a history of the physician’s white coat from 1850 to present
2010	Mohammed Abid YUSUF	The Brown Dog Affair in the Context of Late Victorian Attitudes in Britain
2010	Valerie BROWN	‘The Happy Instrument of Heaven’ And an Appliance of Science (The Resuscitation of persons apparently dead through drowning 1750-1800)
2010	Catherine Elizabeth DEWSBURY	When Cinderella came to the ball, were the arrangements acceptable? Community Pharmacist’s Comments on their

		Experiences in the First Year of the NHS
2010	Joseph Robert FITCHETT	Smallpox Vaccination and Opposition By Anti-vaccinations Societies in 19 th Century Britain
2010	Andrew John HOWE	The Resignation of Sir William Charles Ellis
2010	Samuel JOHNSON	“Wine, Women and Worry”: General Paralysis of the Insane In the Victorian Asylum
2010	David Geoffrey Murray LEWIS	The Vaughans – The Family of Sir Henry Halford
2010	Shabnam NASSRALLY	Rosalind Franklin & DNA
2010	Caroline SAWYERR	The Case of Dr Harold Shipman and How it Changed the Course of History
2010	Susan Mary SNOXALL	How gynaecological care developed in the twentieth century in England
2011	Shahina BEGUM	Women: The Axis of Evil
2011	Joseph BRITTON	A Modern medical giant: How far were personal characteristics and strengths more important for Professor John Ernsting's advances in aviation medicine than the circumstances of the time?
2011	Alice DEMPSEY	Midwifery, Maubray and Moodiwarp: John Maubray and his role in the man-midwife revolution of the early eighteenth century
2011	Georgina GOSNEY	Interrogating Prisoners & Influencing Propaganda: The Role of H.V. Dicks During WWII
2011	Oussama EL HAGE	John Hunter and the Prostate
2011	Sarah JAWAD	Military Medicine: Reform, Russia and the Crimea
2011	Carolyn PAUL	Birth of Hospital Birth in London
2011	Theodore PEZAS	Order Out of Chaos: The Birth of Rehabilitation for Disabling and Disfiguring Injury during WWII
2011	Hassan RAJA	Virtue and Physicians: The History of Human Experimentation and Consent in Medical Research
2011	¶ Rosalind STANWELL-SMITH	Necessary Nuisances: Public Health and the Public Toilet in London, 1890-1910
2011	Lauren TAYLOR	HIV in Britain: What part did gay activist groups play in the fight against HIV between 1982 and 1996?

2011	Sarah WALI	Upwards and onwards: The evolution of the vaginal pessary into the modern day intra-uterine device
2011	Dominic WORDSWORTH	The Great Plague of London: What impact did physicians' beliefs have on controlling the disease?
2012	Arun Arujun Bhaskaran	Neonatology before the incubator – what the ancients, in particular Soranus of Ephesus (AD 98-138), taught us about baby care
2012	Richard Bogle	From Charity to Providence: Influences on the Organisation of Dispensaries in the Early 19 th Century
2012	Fatiha Chehalfi	New Visions of the Apparently Dead: Deconstructing death by galvanism in 1803
2012	Sarah Louise Edwards	Did the Contagious Diseases Acts Benefit the Health of the Army and Navy in Plymouth
2012	Wulfram Forsythe-Yorke	Surgeon Manley and the Franco Prussian War
2012	Stephen Humphreys	General Practitioners fighting for status in the early years of the NHS: the case of a new town
2012	Devon Kennard	Elizabeth Garret Anderson Under the Knife: An Analysis of the Surgical Performance of the First British Female Surgeon
2012	¶ Anthony O'Rourke-Potocki	Sanitation vs Segregation: Public Health Policy in Colonial Nigeria 1897-1914
2012	Ashleigh Squire	Cleft Lip and Cleft Palate: Evolution of Surgical Intervention
2012	Danielle Whiting	The Ashanti Expedition: A Medical War
2012	Ben Williamson	Alexis Carrel: Weighed in the Balance
2012	Phyllida Roe	Cholera in Plymouth: the 1849 outbreak
2013	Margaret Brooks	Medical Advances and their Impact on the treatment of Wartime Wounds on the Western Front 1914 to 1945
2013	John P Collins	Mastectomy with tears: breast cancer surgery in the early nineteenth century
2013	Takashi Fujii	Epigraphic Analysis of Dying in Ancient Asia Minor. Emotions and Family Structure in the Funerary Inscriptions from Phrygia in the Steinepigramme aus dem griechischen Osten

2013	Louise Heyse-Moore	A man of Sorrows: Darwin and his experience of trauma
2013	Simon Miller	Our Old Enemy. An army doctor's account of malaria prevention during the great war
2013	Amberley Munnings	To what extent did the Patient's Association help shape patient involvement in the NHS during its early years of operating
2013	Alice Nutbourne	Artificial Pneumothorax: collapse Therapy and Its Role in the treatment of Pulmonary Tuberculosis 1890 and 1950
2013	Gerardine O'Keeffe	Assessment and Treatment of Alcoholism and Mental Disorder in the early 20 th century at St Patrick's Hospital (Swift's Hospital)
2013	John Rees	The Alienist has left the Building. The Insane Diathesis and the prevention of Insanity in Britain During the 19 th Century
2014	Raquel Filipa Grilo Catalao	Insulin Shock Therapy: in search of Psychiatry's magic bullet
2014	Maria Chicco	The rise and fall of the Italian Hospital: 1884-1990
2014	Michael Collins	The treatment and convalescence of evacuated soldiers in Sheffield during the First World War: the impact in one city.
2014	Magdalena Kinga Cybulska-Highcloud	Death weapon or antidote to terror? Dichotomous medicine under the Nazi tyranny in the Krakow District, 1941-45
2014	Sue Davies	The St Pancras School for Mothers and Other Efforts to Reduce Infant Mortality in One London Borough, 1885-1913
2014	William Land Dibb	Cod Liver Oil in Health and Disease. Loved and hated
2014	Sean Patrick Francis Hughes	Walter Mercer's contribution to the surgical treatment of low back pain
2014	Kyle Mathews	Intravenous Saline Infusion: How it initially failed to flow
2014	Harkiran Kaur Sagoo	Preparing medical students for clinical practice at Guy's hospital and St Thomas' Hospital: is the advice from the 19 th century still applicable?

2014	Helen Jean Sperry	The Triple Tragedy: the cause of death in the childbirth of Princess Charlotte of Wales
2014	Paul Staker	What effect did the Second World War have on the development of a newly qualified doctor working as a home front General Practitioner?
2014	Lesley Sutcliffe	The Life and Times of Dr Jonathan Toogood 1784-1870
2014	Lydia Thurston	Death before Cicely Saunders; the saving grace of London's proto-hospices and the emergence of palliative care from the late 19th century to the mid-20th century.
2014	Edward Julian Wawrzynczak	Preventing tetanus in wounded soldiers: evidence supporting the use of tetanus antioxin at the beginning of World War I
2014	William Whitfield	The Contribution of Dr William Alexander MD. FRCS.To The Care And Treatment Of Epileptics in England, 1870-1919.
2015	Christiana Mary Boules	John Haslam: Hero or villain of the non-restraint movement? The story of an apothecary dedicated to observations of the insane in the context of lunacy reform.
2015	David Gareth Clayton Jones	Biography of Surgeon, William Houlston, a member of the Medical Examining Committee of the London Veterinary College
2015	Elanor Eowyn Cowland	Public Health and Private Lives: Control of Smallpox in a Small City 1840-1940
2015	Michael John Coutts Davidson	The Facial Injuries Unit the Queen's Hospital, Sidcup 1917 – 1925. The clinical staff and their contribution to the development of facial trauma surgery. " It was not just Gillies"
2015	Jenny Patricia Harriet Day	The St Georges Four. A brief history of the first four Women to study Medicine at St Georges
2015	Harry Donnelly	Encephalitis lethargica: history's forgotten epidemic and its connection to Adolf Hitler
2015	Terence Charles Anthony Doyle	Francis Glisson's Anatomia hepatis (1654): An analysis

2015	Kira Louise Farrell	Fort Pitt: a medical and educational history
2015	Fay Deirdre Hartley	Performance Enhancing Substances in the Ancient Olympic Games
2015	Graham Miller Kyle	The Medical Officers of the Llanfyllin Poor Law Union between its inception in 1837 until around 1857.
2015	Allan Bruce Maclean	JOHN HALLIDAY SCOTT : first Dean of the Medical School, University of Otago. WHY DID HE DEPART EDINBURGH AND GO TO DUNEDIN?
2015	Adam Lee Manson	From Horses to Helicopters: How and why did the modern ambulance service of the United Kingdom evolve?
2015	Ulvan Ozad	IBN SINA: LIFE, PHILOSOPHY AND MEDICINE
2015	Martyn Geoffry Thomas	Dr Thomas James Walker Surgeon – General Practitioner Peterborough 1860 – 1916
2016	Diane Margaret Budden	Making their Mark!: Surgeons and Literacy in Henry VIII's Army by Sea in 1513.
2016	Joan Elaine Cameron	The role of the Central Midwives Board in restricting access to pain relief in labour for women giving birth in Scotland 1936 – 1948
2016	Lynda Jane Campbell	Cancer cytogenetics: How ‘playing with paper dolls’ paid off.
2016	Vaishnavi Ashutosh Dandavate	The Sweet Story of Diabetes: 1900-1940
2016	Gabrielle Ruth Deehan	Sophia Jex-Blake and her fight for women's education: What do newspapers of the time reveal about the efficacy of Sophia Jex-Blake's actions in raising her public profile
2016	Nathan Hodson	How did Louisa Twining and Florence Nightingale try to persuade women to become nurses?
2016	Geoffrey Gower Lloyd	Fatigue as a Diagnostic Syndrome: A Historical Perspective

2016	Anežka Devorguilla Beatrix Macey-Dare	A Short History Of Prion Diseases, Including The Late 20th Century Variant Creutzfeldt-Jakob Disease (vCJD) Epidemic
2016	Suzannah Marie Musson	'The impact and significance of the Mental Treatment Act 1930 on mental health services from 1930 to 1959'
2016	Jennifer Stevens	The Moral Property of Women: The Rise of Family Planning Movement in Britain 1798-1901
2016	Ronan Smyth	Meath Hospital from 1820 -1850: The small Dublin hospital that became the centre of the medical world
2017	Christopher Dixon	Dilemmas for doctors in World War One. An evaluation into whether doctors were a boon to or a harmful influence on army casualties in the British forces.
2017	Robert Donaldson	The Life and Times of a 17th Century London Apothecary - James Gover (1628-1704).
2017	Christine Eberhardie	The Organisation and Clinical Management of Penetrating Head Injuries in the First World War
2017	Anjna Harrar	Medical Provision at Croydon, Britain's first main International Airport: A Comparison of The workings and limitations of Croydon Airport's alien medical inspection during the height of the 'Imperial' years 1930-1939 with more traditional British Major Seaports.
2017	Duaa Khair	The Graeco-Arabic Translation Movement: Empowering Al-Razi
2017	Jane Orr	Test Tubes in the Trenches The Influence of the First World War on the Work, Development and Philosophy of the Medical Research Committee 1914-1919
2017	¶ Joanna Pearson	Aid to Spain. Blood for Britain. Janet Vaughan her humanitarian and medical work 1936-1945 & her legacy for British Medicine.
2017	Noel Snell	Stevens' Cure for Consumption: the story of Umckaloabo
2017	Hugh Thomas	The Teaching of Public Health at St George's, London 1858-9 - 1908-9