 EXPLANATORY NOTES:

Membership of Faculty (cost: £40 per year, £20 for undergraduates in full-time education)

This is open to all with an interest in the history, philosophy or ethics of medicine and pharmacy. Many members are doctors, pharmacists, other healthcare workers or students but interested members of the public are equally welcome. As a member we will keep you informed of all Faculty activities.

Membership offers:

- Invitation to our Eponymous lectures to listen to our eminent speakers. You are also invited to stay for a subscription supper to mingle with other Faculty members, Court members, the speaker and those with similar interests.
- Regular mailing
- Members area on the website
- Newsletters for related events
- Invitation to the Annual General Meeting

Fellowship of Faculty (cost: £110 for a year, including Membership of the Faculty. £55 for undergraduates in full- time education, including Membership of the Faculty)

Again this is open to all (you do not have to be a member first), but is particularly relevant for those who wish to pursue personal study within the Faculty's areas of interest. It is especially relevant to Faculty Alumni who have taken the DHMSA or the DPMSA and wish to continue their studies.

Fellowship entitles you to:

- All of the above (Members entitlement)
- Access to regular workshops to share and develop your work and interests
- Professional advice and guidance to work up material for publication (whether or not you wish to attend Fellows' workshops)
- Attend Fellows' Meeting where papers can be presented and discussed
- Mentoring offered long distance if attendance is not possible
- Fellows updates on the website

Fellowship of the Faculty is the natural home for those who wish to pursue their own studies in the history or philosophy of medicine or medical ethics or to publish in these areas.

Please note Membership runs from September – August
