Humanitarian Action & Ethics: Panel Discussion

With a Foreword by Hugo Slim
Edited by Ayesha Ahmad and James Smith

Date: Friday 15 November 2019

Time: 6 pm–9 pm

Who can attend: Open to all

Cost: Free for Faculty CC members, £10 for non-members

Venue: The Society of Apothecaries, Apothecaries' Hall, Black Friars Lane, London EC4V 6EJ

Contact: facultycc@apothecaries.org

This event will provide an opportunity to hear and discuss recent thinking on ethics and humanitarian action, including the light shed on this by practical experiences from the field.

Key players

Two of the panel members will be the editors of the recently published book, Humanitarian Action & Ethics (ISBN 978-1-78699-267-3 pb)

Dr Ayesha Ahmad lectures on the Worshipful Society of Apothecaries' Conflict & Catastrophe Medicine course, on Global Health at St George's University of London, and is an Honorary Lecturer at University College London's Institute for Global Health.

Dr James Smith is a Research Fellow with the Health in Humanitarian Crises Centre at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, and has worked as an advisor to Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF) Operational Centre Barcelona and as a researcher with MSF's Research Unit on Humanitarian Stakes and Practices.

Other members of the four-person panel will be drawn from contributors to the book.

A wonderful opportunity for a few drinks and a bit of networking!

How to book: members can book online via the member's area and for non-members, please email Goldy at facultycc@apothecaries.org
