

The Worshipful Society of Apothecaries of London

FACULTY OF CONFLICT AND CATASTROPHE MEDICINE

Audrey Few Lecture

'Drowning in the Netherlands:
an omnipresent risk, and yet no fear'

Dr Joost Bierens MD PhD MCPM

Tuesday 24 September 2019, 6pm

Apothecaries' Hall

Black Friars Lane

London

EC4V 6EJ

Dr Bierens, a clinically active anaesthesiologist, is also thesis co-ordinator for the European Masters in Disaster Medicine; Visiting Professor at the research group for Emergency and Disaster Medicine at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel (Belgium); and Visiting Professor at the Doctoral School in Global Health, Humanitarian Aid and Disaster Medicine at the University of Piemonte in Italy. He is considered an authority in the field of drowning and other aquatic emergencies and co-ordinated the first World Congress on Drowning.

Timings:

5:30	Teas/Coffees	No charge
6:00	Student Elective Presentation	No charge
6:30	Lecture in Great Hall	No charge
7:30	Drinks and Nibbles Reception	No charge	(Faculty Members)
		£10.00 pp	(Non-Members)

Booking Options

Society & Faculty Members: please book via the Member's Area of the website. www.apothecaries.org

Non-members: please contact facultycc@apothecaries.org