FACULTY OF CONFLICT AND CATASTROPHE MEDICINE

STUDENT ELECTIVE PRIZE

Deadline for submissions: 1st April, 2020

The Faculty of Conflict & Catastrophe Medicine is offering three Student Elective Prizes of £750.00 each for Medical Student Electives in the fields of Conflict and Catastrophe Medicine.

Applicants must be in the clinical years of a medical degree at a UK Medical School embarking on an elective within 1 year of the prize being awarded.

Please submit an abstract of no more than 500 words outlining the planned elective and its relevance to Conflict and Catastrophe Medicine.

Abstracts should include:

- Location, aims, plan of action.
- Nature of supervision and security precautions.
- Impact and relevance to Conflict & Catastrophe or Disaster Medicine
- How the money will be used in funding the elective.

Please note: the prize money must not be used on a preparatory trip.

The winners will be required to make a brief presentation to the Faculty after they have completed their electives.

Please contact: FacultyCC@apothecaries.org for an application form.

The prize winners will be announced in May 2020
