

The Worshipful Society of Apothecaries of London
Farr Medal Winners

2006	Dr SR ILIFFE, BSc, MB BS, FRCGP	Contribution to elderly healthcare in General Practice
2007	Prof C dodds, MB BS, MRCGP, FRCA	Anaesthetic and critical care of the elderly across a wide spectrum of surgery and disease
2009	Prof M DENNIS, MB BS, MD, FRCP	Substantial contribution to the management of elderly people in stroke medicine
2010	Dr A McCaddon, BSc, MB ChB, MD, MRCGP	Work on Vitamin B12 deficiency and Alzheimer's disease
2011	Prof SA Murray, MB ChB, DCH, DObstRCOG, MD, DFFP, FRCGP, FRCP Edin	Significant improvements to non-malignant palliative care for older adults
2012	Prof DJ BURN, MA, MB BS, MD, FRCP	Significant research into Parkinson's and neurodegenerative disorders
2013	Professor M EMBERTON, MD, FRCS	In recognition of his individual major contributions to knowledge about prostatic disease.
	Professor M MASON, MD, FRCP, FRCR, FSB	In recognition of his individual major contributions to knowledge about prostatic disease.
2014	Dr EL SAMPSON, MB ChB, MRCPsych, MD, MSc	For contribution to pain management and acute hospital care in older people with dementia
2015	Prof LA ROBINSON, MB BS, MD, DCH, MRCGP	Work on improving community based dementia care Planning and for research into Advance Care
2016	Prof GE MEAD, MB BChir, MA MD, FRCP	Major contribution to the promotion of safe and effective exercise for frail and older stroke survivors
2017	Prof Alasdair MACLULLICH, MB ChB MRCP	Major contributions to the field of delirium in science, advocacy, capacity-building, clinical care and education
2018	Dr Miles WITHAM, BM BCh FRCP(Edin) PhD	Contribution to research into improving physical function and quality of life in older people, by targeting multiple pathologies of aging
2019	Prof Simon CONROY MB ChB PhD MRCP	For his work on improving outcomes for frail older people by embedding evidence based medicine into clinical practice