

MEMBERSHIP

Faculty of the History and Philosophy of Medicine and Pharmacy

Membership
Academic Year 2020-2021

Founded in 1959, the Faculty for the History and Philosophy of Medicine and Pharmacy welcomes members to take part in its programme of lectures, events and courses. Membership is open to everyone with an interest in history of medicine, philosophy and ethics of healthcare, and pharmacy history.

Faculty Membership

£44 (£22 Student Membership)

- Discounts on paid events
- Priority booking
- Online members' area
- Regular members' newsletters
- Invitation to attend our AGM
- Invitation to join our Executive Committee

Faculty Fellowship

£117 (£58 Student Fellows of the Faculty)

Fellowship of the Faculty is the natural home for those who wish to pursue their own studies in the history or philosophy of medicine or medical ethics or to publish in these areas.

- Alumni group for those who have taken the Diploma courses
- Attend Fellows' Meeting where papers can be presented and discussed
- Access to workshops to share and develop your work and interests
- Professional advice and guidance to work up material for publication
- Fellows updates on the website
- All of the above (Members' entitlement)

Follow us

Twitter: @ApothecariesLDN and @FacultyHP

Soundcloud: <https://soundcloud.com/facultyhp>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/HistoryandPhilosophyMedicine>

LinkedIn: <http://uk.linkedin.com/pub/maria-ferran/9b/71a/437>

For more information

Maria Ferran, Faculty Manager & Webmaster

Telephone: 020 7236 1189