

WOMEN & BIOETHICS IN THE 21ST CENTURY

FACULTY OF THE HISTORY & PHILOSOPHY OF MEDICINE & PHARMACY

Celebrating International Women's Day with three talks on Monday, 8 March 2021

10.30am - Professor Donna Dickenson:
Personalized medicine and the public good

2pm - Dr Paquita De Zulueta:
*Pregnancy and vulnerability in socially excluded
women – a call to action*

6pm - Dr Alexis Paton:
*Influential Women in Bioethics: who,
what and why?*

Chaired by Dr Andrew Papanikitas

All talks will take place online through Zoom.

The cost of the event is £10pp - bookings can be made by clicking here

Members book by clicking here

For any queries, please contact: Maria Ferran,
Faculty Manager & Webmaster
Email: facultyhp@apothecaries.org