

Worshipful Society of Apothecaries Livery Committee

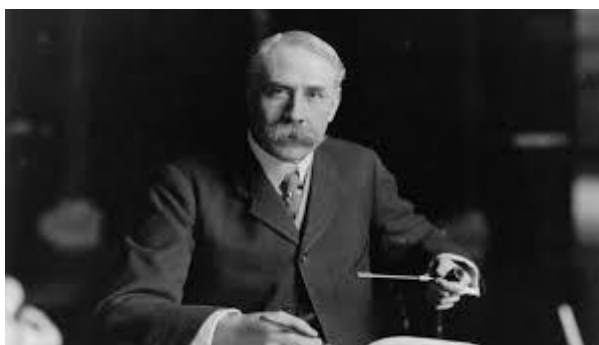

Invites you to a Virtual Lecture on

“Sir Edward Elgar – a Medical Enigma?”

On Thursday 1st July 2021

At 7:00pm

By Dr John Harcup

Edward Elgar has been labelled as a hypochondriac, a depressive, or just plain moody. Dr John Harcup worked in Malvern where Elgar lived for 13 years and became fascinated by the man and his music. From diaries, letters and biographies John has put together the medical history of this famous composer and exposed the medical blunders that blighted his life. The talk is illustrated by images and Elgar’s music.

To register please email your contact details to alan.collett@gmail.com the Livery Committee Treasurer. The necessary Zoom link details will then be sent to you.
