

MEMBERSHIP

Faculty of the History and Philosophy of Medicine and Pharmacy

Membership
Academic Year 2021-2022

Founded in 1959, the Faculty for the History and Philosophy of Medicine and Pharmacy welcomes members to take part in its programme of lectures, events and courses. Membership is open to everyone with an interest in history of medicine, philosophy and ethics of healthcare, and pharmacy history.

Faculty Membership

£45 (£23 Student Membership)

- Discounts on paid events
- Priority booking
- Online members' area with podcasts and other resources
- Regular members' newsletters with direct links to member resources
- Invitation to attend our AGM
- Invitation to stand for our Executive Committee
- Affiliate membership of the British Society for the History of Medicine (BSHM) with access to BSHM member discounts

Faculty Fellowship

£120 (£60 Student Fellows of the Faculty)

Fellowship of the Faculty is the natural home for those who wish to pursue their studies in the history or philosophy of medicine or medical ethics or to publish in these areas.

- A community of people who have a history or philosophy of medicine qualification, or an interest in the subject and other relevant qualification/experience
- Collegiate environment in which to develop ideas and receive knowledgeable feedback
- Workshops on writing and publishing and creative writing events
- Discussion with invited speakers on topical themes
- Fellows' updates on the website
- All of the above and members' entitlement

Follow us

Twitter: @ApothecariesLDN and @FacultyHP

Soundcloud: <https://soundcloud.com/facultyhp>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/HistoryandPhilosophyMedicine>

LinkedIn: <http://uk.linkedin.com/pub/aria-ferran/9b/71a/437>

YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCqgw2qg79qjE2VBGT23DO9Q>