

HISTORY OF MEDICINE COURSE 2022-2023

Final Day – 10 June 2023

LOOKING BACK

- 15 Saturdays
- 60 Lectures
- 50 Lecturers
- Covered topics ranging from Anaesthesia to Radiology, Chinese, Egyptian, Greek and Islamic Medicine, to Pharmacy, Psychiatry and Public Health
- Explored archives and objects, visited medical museums and enjoyed surroundings of Apothecaries' Hall

Bottom row of images courtesy of Wellcome Images

DHMSA 2023

- Written Papers – Tuesday 13 June 2023 at Apothecaries’ Hall
- Please send a copy of your final PowerPoint presentation to academicadmin@apothecaries.org in advance of the Test Lecture on 30 June.
- The Society requires a copy of the final presentation for its records, and it will also be an option should technology fail. It is always helpful to have a back-up copy just in case!
- Please ignore 16 June deadline for “Test Lecture Precis” as appears in the Administrative Guidance for Candidates. Historically this was a confusing deadline to send the presentation in advance to exams and will be removed in future years.
- Practice Session to test IT for Test Lectures: Wednesday 21 June, 12pm-1pm
- Test Lectures – Friday 30 June online – 9.55 am to 1.55 pm. Slots already allocated and candidates informed. Candidates can join at 9.55 am as audience members if they wish.
- All exam queries to Precious Eniola academicadmin@apothecaries.org

Appendix 4

Test Lecture Marking Sheet

Category of assessment	Mark
1) Overall quality of presentation (30 marks total) a) Introduction, content, conclusion (20 marks) b) clarity and audibility (10 marks)	...../20 ...../10
2) Engagement with the audience (30 marks) (Including eye contact, appropriate and effective use of humour, attitude, inflection and intonation, body language)	...../30
3) Appropriate use of audio-visual aids and artefacts (10 marks) (Slides, other visual aids, handouts, steps taken to ensure equipment compatibility)	...../10
4) Treatment of source material (10 marks)	...../10
5) Suitability for audience (10 marks) (Is the lecture pitched at the target audience, would it keep the audience interested?)	...../10
6) Time keeping (10 marks)  a) 14 m to 16 m (10 marks) b) 13 -14 m or 16 m -16 m 30 s (5 marks) c) 12 -13 m or 16 m 30 s – 17 m (3 marks) d) less than 12 minutes or more than 17 minutes (0 marks)	...../10
Total marks (out of an available 100) <60 = fail, 60-69 = satisfactory, 70-79 = good, 80 or more = excellent	...../100

LOOKING FORWARD

- Please remember that slides and handouts are available online to download until 6 August and then all the information will no longer be available. You cannot download the YT videos.
- Please remember that participants on this year's course can attend up to two days the following year

From T&Cs: Lectures missed in the year for which registration has been made (or equivalent lectures if the titles are not available) may be attended in the following year. Two such days may be attended without additional charge.

- If you want to attend a day next year, please email Maria in advance to check there is space.
- Next year's course will be running with a mix of in-person and online days. A draft programme will be available on the website soon. We're planning visits to the Wellcome Library on Friday 2 February 2024, to the London Metropolitan Archives on Saturday 9 March 2024 and hopefully to Guy's Hospital to visit the Gordon Museum and Old Operating Theatre and Herb Garret on 11 May 2024.

Please do feel free to contact me during the year, if you have any questions, want advice etc. Email: historydirector@apothecaries.org .

DHMSA IN 2024

- The DHMSA exam format is changing in 2024. It will consist of one written paper, most likely sat under open book conditions, a dissertation and test lecture.
- If you plan to take the DHMSA in 2024 please let me know and I'll add you to my list for updates regarding the exam in 2024.
- The Society will also be rolling out its new learning platform, Brightspace, in the autumn. The submission of proposals for the dissertation and test lecture will be via this platform, with an earlier deadline of 29 February 2024.
- We will be running an online session covering the changes on Saturday 2 December 2023 at 2.30 pm. All are welcome to join this session in addition to the two additional days. The link will be available from Maria. There may be delays before information is available on the website and via the new learning platform, so please come along to this session if you are considering taking the exam in 2024.
- Please do email us if you need to! Tina Matthews and I know that some people want to discuss dissertation ideas and get informal feedback so they can start researching. We are happy to provide this once the exam season is over (early July).
- Tina Matthews, Convenor: convenordhmsa@gmail.com
- Anna Simmons, Course Director: historydirector@apothecaries.org

THANK YOU!

- Thank you for being a wonderful group of students for this year's history of medicine course.
- It's been a pleasure to get to know you over this year and I hope you have enjoyed taking the course.
- Please consider joining the Faculty of the History and Philosophy of Medicine and Pharmacy, attend our lectures and events or become a Faculty Fellow.
- Fellowship of the Faculty is the natural home for those who wish to pursue their own studies in the history or philosophy of medicine or medical ethics or to publish in these areas.
- More information available from <https://www.apothecaries.org/about-the-faculty/>
- Please also share your feedback, either in-person at today's session or via facultyhp@apothecaries.org

